Opening reflection

THE STORY WE ARE LEARNING TO LIVE

These convictions shape the way we understand life with Jesus.

Life is received, not achieved.

We were created to receive life from God rather than manufacture identity, worth, security, or spiritual life for ourselves.

Jesus is not merely our example; He is our life.

Christianity is more than trying to imitate Jesus. Our life is found in union with Him.

The Bible tells one unified story centered on Christ.

From creation to new creation, Scripture reveals God's work to restore His people and His world through Jesus.

The Kingdom of God is God's invitation to live under His loving reign.

Jesus invites us to trust the goodness of the King and learn His way of life.

Christian formation is learning daily dependence upon the Father.

Maturity does not mean needing God less. We learn, like Jesus, to live in dependence upon the Father.

The Holy Spirit forms Christ within us.

Transformation is not merely self-improvement. The Spirit works within us to form the life of Jesus.

Every day offers a choice for life.

Again and again we decide where we will look for life and whose way we will trust.

God's desire has always been to form a people who live from the Tree of Life.

From creation to new creation, God is forming a people whose lives flow from His presence, His provision, and His life.

JOHN 10:10

“I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.”

What stands out to you?

Which of these convictions most catches your attention, encourages you, or raises a question?

THE KINGDOM: LIFE UNDER THE KING

The Kingdom of God is not simply a place we go someday. It is God’s reign becoming present as we trust the King and learn His ways. Jesus invites us to receive life from Him and bring every part of our lives under His loving leadership.

Consider one ordinary area of your life

Where might Jesus be inviting you to trust Him more fully—work, family, money, relationships, decisions, worry, conflict, time, or something else?

Scriptures to return to

John 15:1-5 — Remain in Me.

Colossians 3:1-4 — Christ, who is your life.

Galatians 2:20 — Christ lives in me.

Matthew 6:33 — Seek first His Kingdom.

Revelation 22:1-2 — The Tree of Life in the new creation.

A question to carry

Where am I tempted to look for life apart from Jesus?

Something about Jesus that captured my attention:

A place where I noticed myself reaching for life somewhere else:

A Scripture, prayer, or next right thing I want to carry with me:
